

Learners and staff members participated during the two years project in study trips, excursions, lectures, discussions about culture and tourism, made researches and PowerPoint presentations about cultural tourism and history, about hidden places in Tallinn and Narva – potential areas for foreign visitors. They disseminated final products of the project to local partners and other organisations interested in cultural tourism.