

In July 2012 our train stopped to Nelijarve (Estonia). In fact, 34 young guys from 7 different countries from all Europe come to Nelijarve for an international exchange about "Creative reading and writing".

The language of this exchange was English but the participant team was so nice because every freetime was an opportunity to learn the language of each other and this climate was simply fantastic. Mark (Hungary) said " Now I can speak a little bit of Lithuanian language and it's so good for me"; Linda (Italy) said " Now I can speak a little bit of Estonian language; each morning during the exchange said TERE and not Good Morning.

The topic of this projet was reflection and writing articles, reports, the first page of a journal. During this exchange the participants had also visit the capital of Estonia, a nice, small city divided in old town and the modern city where the guys walked and saw a lot of monuments and visited also the radio RAADIO 4 where three participants Denica (Bulgaria), Justina (Lithuania) and Mark (Hungary) had been interviewed in the Estonian radio.

The young people had spend good time in peaceful place inside the nature and near to little lake. The days were organized in activities, workshop where the participants worked in team and they learned to share opinion, to cooperate for writing an article or the first page of journal, to have the sens of humor for make interview to the radio or in the local tv about the youth and social media. In the evening were NEVER SLEEP for two reasons: first, the sun sleep just one hour for day, second, guys were engaged in different cultural evening. During the exchange there were a lot of mosquitos bite each moment but the Friday night when they tested sauna something change. Giulia (Italy) had just one thing in her mind " The sauna made me forgotten each bite of mosquitos". Moreover, they play at KISS&KILL where each component receivid one ticket where it was to indicate the place and who he have to kissing at one other participant. Maria Antonietta (Italy) said us " I dead in the old town to Tallinn when one of participant kiss me and kill me with a method totally unexpectedly.

The last Saturday each team come back in their country but the motto dor saying Goodbye wasn't it but just COME IN MY COUNTRY and in this wait KEEP IN TOUCH and one big hug for saying See you soon and thanks a lot for each awesome moment share together in this wonderful place!
