

"Dream without Fear, Love without Limits"

29 February - 5 March, 2016

Valkenburg, Netherlands

The project is granted by Dutch NA

Introduction

The project will bring together youth leaders, workers, trainer, teachers, and students to speak up against bullying, violence and to make their voice be heard.

The project will support to involve youth in non-formal education and to enable them to act as multipliers for human Rights education specifically in this subject to get skills and develop the knowledge how to deal with the problem, to find the solution – through awareness, insight, and action. On the other hand, knowing how to handle bullying solve the problem in time. The project will provide a forum to discuss ways of reintegrating young offenders into society.

Every day the participants will write a letter, message or will be placed photos in different groups which will make people's awareness to join the action and speak up against bullying and violence.

The project will support the partnership building activities between the associations, but will be also one concrete action that each country group will be responsible to make after the project -A Campaign.

We ll bring 3 participants per country. Participant Countries: Netherlands, Romania, Turkey, Italy, Bulgaria, Estonia, Germany.
